

QPI Recruitment Workgroup: Agenda

Date: September 6, 2017

Time: 12:00 pm -1:30 pm

Location: Mt. Charleston Room, 701 Pecos Rd.

Meeting Results

By the end of the meeting, participants will:

- 1) Participants will help to create an infrastructure of a recruitment plan for recruiting teens
- 2) Use data to help create the first phase of the teen recruitment plan

Preparation

- Review the attached Recruitment Plan document
- Think about action items/activity steps for supporting the objectives
- Lunch is on us! Annie E. Casey is generously providing lunch from Einstein Bros.

Agenda

Attendees:	Sha'Londa Adams, Eduardo Alvarez, Neiuifi Iongi, Amanda Schmidt, Amanda Spletter, Joseph Taylor, Laura Griffin
Timeframe 12:00-12:15 pm	Task: Welcome, Introductions and Check-In. Share: name, unit, one thing you said you would never do when you became an adult/parent? Results: Ice breakers will ready Participants for the work. Each member shared a memory from their childhood or youth in which they recalled something their parent said or did that they determined they would never do as an adult. In retro respect we learned that some things that parents said or did that we thought were mean were actually for our good. This icebreaker readied us for the task of being able to identify persons or groups that could be those mentors for our youth in care.
Timeframe 12:15-12:30 pm	Task: Check –in with task assignment from August and briefly report out findings of organizations that support teens/youth Results: Group will identify top organizations to survey staff for any possible connections The following were identified as the top organizations to reach out to support teens in care: Businesses in 89115 zip code: College of Southern NV Walnut Community Center Sunrise Community Center LGBTQ: The Center Black LGBTQ Youth Groups: Team Network Boys and Girls Club Businesses in 89121 zip code: Guidance counselors at Valley and Chapparral High Schools Islamic Center Whitney Recreation Center Big Brother Big Sister African American Community: National Coalition of Black Women

QPI Recruitment Workgroup: Agenda

Date: September 6, 2017

Time: 12:00 pm -1:30 pm

Location: Mt. Charleston Room, 701 Pecos Rd.

	Council of Black Women NAACP The team discussed developing a Speaker's Bureau which would include several teens that are ready to speak at different engagements. The teens would learn strategic sharing skills that were developed by youth for youth and other developmental skills. We will partner with Step-Up – an organization that supports the transition of teens in the independent living program in care into adulthood, and FAAYT's youth advisory board. The goal is to have youth talk about how support from a foster home helped them. Laura suggested having a teen present with her once a week at the Team Network meeting. Joe stated that he could reach out to Michelle Fuller of Help. Hope.Home and to other community centers
Timeframe 12:30-1:15 pm	Task: Using data gathered from previous assignments the team will write recruitment objectives for teen recruitment plan Results: Phase 1 of teen recruitment plan will be complete The team agreed to place the results from the previous agenda item in the recruitment plan under the respective goals of recruitment for more African American families and families for teens.
Timeframe 1:20- 1:30 pm	Next Steps and Check-Out Results: Overview of responsibility of tasks who will do what and set time frames of completion. At the next meeting we will discuss the development of a new recruitment brand and campaign.